

FIGTREE
CONSULTING, INC.

Tiller

Steering Petroleum Distribution to the Next Generation in Automation

For the largest independent gasoline distributor in New Jersey, live phone order taking and manual dispatching were too time consuming and required extensive training of personnel. They needed an automated system for order taking and dispatching.

The telephony and server-based software that Figtree developed, called Tiller, allows gas station personnel to send orders via telephone that are automatically entered into the system for review and order dispatching.

Orders

Requested Delivery 10/13/2002 Go < Previous Next > 0 Orders

Order	Customer Ac	Location Name	Reg	Mid	Prem	Dsl	Driver	Load	Pref Time	Entered By	Entry Date	Entry Time

Customer: []

Regular Mid-Grade Premium Diesel Location

Order Number Terminal

Driver Load # Comments

Pref Time Call First Other Charges

Help Edit Print Add Delete Save Cancel Exit

Tiller Order Screen—For manual entry of orders and review of day's deliveries.

The Tiller System includes these functions:

- Inventory and Order entry and review.
- Price tracking.
- Schedule and dispatch deliveries.
- Print customer and rack Bills of Lading.
- Actual delivery amount entry.
- Invoice creation.
- Customer, Location and Driver Maintenance.
- Reporting on dispatching, price lists and commissions.
- Payroll maintenance.

Figtree Consulting, Inc.

101 Gibraltar Drive
Morris Plains, NJ 07950

www.figtree.com

Toll Free Phone:
(866) 539-9311 ext. 309
Fax: (973) 539-6625

Email: sales@figtree.com

For information on designing a Custom Software system
for your company,
contact Figtree.